

Selected reference

|                  |                                                                                                                        |
|------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Site:            | Nordic Paper AS, Greåker (Norway)                                                                                      |
| Type of plant:   | Combustion plant of waste oil                                                                                          |
| Filcon delivery: | 1360 m <sup>2</sup> bag filters; Dosing – and injection System for ad- and absorption and collection of waste product. |
| Purpose:         | Observance of requirements according to the EU-directive.                                                              |

